GETTING BEYOND A BLIND DATE WITH SCIENCE

by ALAN ALDA

“I read science, because to me, that’s extremely exciting. It’s like a great detective story, and it’s happening right in front of us.”

ALAN ALDA

ACTOR, DIRECTOR AND
FOUNDING MEMBER OF THE ALAN ALDA
CENTER FOR COMMUNICATING SCIENCE
AT THE STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

Friday, May 19, 2017 • Lecture 3 PM

Schafler Auditorium, Bloomberg Center room 272
Homewood Campus
Johns Hopkins University

Actor and science advocate, Alan Alda, shares how scientists and health professionals can share and distill their work into a message that effectively resonates with their peers, public, and patients.
